The RAND Corporation is an independent, non-profit organization that performs research and analysis. During the time period in question (fiscal year 2021 through fiscal year 2023), RAND has had contracts and grants with various agencies of the federal government to perform research and analysis. A list of RAND donors, grantmakers, and clients can be found in RAND's annual reports at https://www.rand.org/about/annual_report.html

RAND has contracts with the Department of Defense and the Department of Homeland Security to operate four federally funded research and development centers (FFRDCs): PROJECT AIR FORCE for the U.S. Air Force; Arroyo Center for the U.S. Army; National Defense Research Institute for the Department of Defense; and Homeland Security Operational Analysis Center (HSOAC) for the Department of Homeland Security. The contracts listed represent the master contracts for RAND FFRDCs with the Department of Defense and the Department of Homeland Security. A further breakdown of contract information can be made available to the committee if requested.
