

Alan Abbs is the Legislative Officer for the Bay Area Air Quality Management District. In this position, he is responsible for state and federal air quality legislative and government affairs advocacy for the nine county air district . Prior to working for the Bay Area AQMD, Alan was the Executive Director for the California Air Pollution Control Officers Association (CAPCOA), representing the Executive Officers of the 35 air pollution control districts and air quality management districts in California. Alan also served as the Air Pollution Control Officer for the Tehama County Air Pollution Control District, and in leadership and management positions in solid waste, the paper industry, and the U.S. Navy. Alan received a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, MD, and a Masters of Business Administration from California State University Chico in Chico, CA.