

Dr. Williams is an 8th generation Georgian and product of the University System of Georgia for both college and medical school. A blue collar kid from Savannah who was called to medicine at 12 years of age. He is a University of North Carolina Fellowship-trained Child and Adult Neurologist as well as the owner and founder of Urgent Care 24/7 a chain urgent care centers who has practiced medicine for 32 years. He is the author of the definitive text on the early outpatient treatment of COVID, Fight COVID and Win and also holds a U.S. patent for the IsoPro Chamber, a medical dental device that protects healthcare workers and patients from contracting airborne illnesses from sick patients in a hospital, office or transport setting.