JEFFREY C. HALL

National Employment Director
DAV (Disabled American Veterans)

Jeffrey C. Hall, a combat veteran of the Persian Gulf War, was appointed National Employment Director of the nearly 1.3 million-member DAV on March 31, 2014. From the DAV National Headquarters located in Cold Spring, Kentucky, Mr. Hall oversees special employment initiatives and works with private and public sector entities to develop and build partnerships to address joblessness and underemployment as well as facilitate job fairs and lead efforts to connect veterans and employers.

A native of Goodland, Indiana, Mr. Hall earned an associate's degree in fine arts from Vincennes University, Indiana in 1986. He also earned certification in the lawyer's assistant program from Roosevelt University, Chicago, Illinois in 1994. He also graduated from the management and leadership training program at Prince George's Community College, Largo, Maryland in 1996.

Mr. Hall enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1988 and served as a member of B Company, 3rd Battalion, 41st Infantry Regiment, Tiger Brigade, 2nd Armored Division. On March 11, 1991, while serving in the Persian Gulf War, he was wounded when his vehicle struck an Iraqi anti-tank mine, resulting in concussion blast injuries to his lower and upper extremities. Following medical treatment and intensive physical therapy, Sgt. Hall returned to duty and was honorably discharged in 1992.

Mr. Hall joined DAV's professional staff as a National Service Officer Trainee in 1993 at the Chicago, Illinois, National Service Office. In 1996, he was assigned to the position of National Appeals Officer at the Board of Veterans' Appeals office in Washington, D.C., and was appointed Assistant Supervisor in Louisville, Kentucky in 1997. In 1999, he was appointed Supervisor of the Chicago, Illinois, National Service Office. In 2004, he was simultaneously promoted to Supervisor of the New York, New York, National Service Office and National Area Supervisor of Area 10. He was appointed Assistant National Legislative Director in 2010 and served in that capacity until his current appointment. He is also a member and former President of the National Guild of Attorneys in Fact, Inc.

Mr. Hall is a life member of DAV Chapter 212 in Goshen, New York. He lives in Cold Spring with wife, LeeAnne, and their three children.
