

Mitria Spotser

Mitria Spotser is a Consultant at the Center for Responsible Lending. She previously served as the Director of Housing Policy at the Consumer Federation of America and a member of the consumer advisory councils for JP Morgan Chase, Rocket Mortgage, Wells Fargo, Bank of America, and Freddie Mac. Mitria has also previously served as Sr. Director of Advocacy and Counsel at the Credit Union National Association, Senior Counsel on the House Financial Services Committee for Chairwoman Maxine Waters, Vice President of Federal Policy and Senior Counsel at the Center for Responsible Lending, Director of Legislative and Policy Advocacy at the National Community Reinvestment Coalition, Director of Government Affairs for the DC Housing Finance Agency, and Legislative Director and Acting Committee Director for the Committee on Economic Development for the Council of the District of Columbia.

As a noted expert in issues involving affordable housing, economic development, consumer protection, access to credit and capital, housing finance, and oversight of financial institutions, Mitria and her work have appeared on CNBC, MSNBC, Bloomberg News, NPR, and C-SPAN. She has also published a number of articles in law journals, law reviews, and editorial publications and testified before both the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate. In 2014, Mitria appeared on the cover of Housing Wire Magazine as a “Woman of Influence” in recognition of her development of the affordable housing compromise in the bipartisan Corker-Warner housing finance reform legislation.
