

Department of Veterans Affairs

Senior Executive Biography

Maureen Fay McCarthy, MD

Deputy Chief Patient Care Services Officer VA Central Office

The focus of the Deputy Chief Patient Care Services Officer support the vision of the Under Secretary for Health and VHA's offering the highest quality health care to our Veterans. The with all clinical programs to form an active and coordinated team in order to articulate an integrated overview of Veterans. The DCPCSO plays a key role in effectively addressing Veteran needs through the development of clinical guidelines and clinical care programs and providers. As Deputy Chief Patient Officer, Dr. McCarthy serves as a consultant to the Assistant Deputy Under Secretary for Health for Patient Care Services and the Deputy Under Secretary for Health for Policy and Services (DUSHPS) on all policy matters and issues that relate to patient care and clinical services.

(DCPCSO) is to mission in DCPCSO works interdisciplinary health issues. health care standards for Care Services

Dr. McCarthy has a 23-year history of service to the Veteran community including in her prior role as Chief of Staff at the Salem VA Medical Center, which she has held for over five years. As Chief of Staff, Dr. McCarthy functioned in a major clinical leadership role at the Salem VAMC, which serves a population of approximately 36,000 Veterans. Dr. McCarthy also has served as Associate Chief of Staff for Education and staff psychiatrist at the Salem VAMC and has served in staff psychiatrist position at the Washington, DC VA Medical Center. While in VA Central Office, she continues to provide treatment to a small number of Veterans by telemedicine. At this time she is also serving as Acting Chief Consultant for Telehealth.

CAREER CHRONOLOGY:

Deputy Chief Patient Care Services Officer
Chief of Staff, Salem VA Medical Center
Associate Chief of Staff/Education, Salem VA Medical Center
Psychiatrist, Salem VA Medical Center
Psychiatrist, Washington, DC, VA Medical Center

EDUCATION:

Tufts/New England Medical Center, Psychiatry Residency PGY 3-4
Georgetown University, Psychiatry Residency PGY 1-2
University of Massachusetts Medical School, Worcester, MA, Doctor of Medicine, 1987
Simmons College, Boston, MA, B.S., Chemistry and Biology, 1977

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS:

American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology
American Board of Medical Examiners

AWARDS AND HONORS:

2007 University of Virginia, Academy of Distinguished Educators
2006 Via Virginia College of Osteopathic Medicine, Academic Excellence
2006 University of Virginia, Carilion Roanoke/Salem Program, Teaching Award
1999 Georgetown University, Graduating Residents Teaching Award, Psychiatry
1991 Tufts/New England Medical Center, Medical Students Teaching Award, Psychiatry

1987 University of Massachusetts Medical, Upjohn Award for Most Outstanding Promise as a Physician