

Alfred J. Ozanian, Ph.D.

Deputy Chief Officer, Readjustment Counseling Services Veterans Health Administration

Dr. Ozanian (AI) is currently the Deputy Chief Officer, Readjustment Counseling Services (RCS) in the Veterans Health Administration. Prior to joining RCS, he was the Assistant Deputy Director and Director of Strategic Planning and Communications in the Office of Mental Health and Suicide Prevention. He spent most of his career in the Department of Defense as the Department's Addiction Medicine Program Manager (2010-2014) within the Defense Health Agency (DHA) and served over 33 years on active duty including the privilege of commanding a Medical Operations Squadron, serving as the regional Mental Health Consultant for Air Mobility Command, and was on the Air Force Surgeon General staff as a Biomedical Service Corps consultant. He has also led a mental health team into operational theaters of war in support of Army operations. His military service spanned both the United States Army and the United States Air Force (retired 2010).

Dr. Ozanian earned his undergraduate degree from Virginia State University, his Master's Degree in Social Work from Virginia Commonwealth University, and his Ph.D. from Columbia University, NY. He is board certified in Social Work and holds an advanced clinical license from the state of Texas.