

Matthew Brown enlisted in the United States Army in 2009 and was assigned to Fort Bragg, North Carolina as a Paratrooper and Parachute Rigger in the 82nd Airborne Division. He was later assigned as a Combatives Instructor in the 82nd Soldier Support Battalion. After his active service ended in 2011, he transferred to the Maryland National Guard's 158th Long Range Surveillance Cavalry before his honorable discharge in 2015.

Matt is the co-founder of Energize Group Dental Marketing, a dynamic dental solutions company. With a passion for helping others achieve their goals and a deep understanding of the dental industry, Matt has spearheaded numerous successful projects, guiding dental practices across the United States toward prosperity.

Today, he continues to make an indelible mark on the dental business world, leveraging his diverse experiences and expertise to empower professionals and shape their success. Matt's insights are unmatched, and his passion for dental success shines through all his work. He has made a positive impact in the dental industry, transforming dental offices across the nation into flourishing practices. Everyone can learn from his dental marketing expertise. Whether it's through his martial arts background, military service, or business ventures, he exemplifies the qualities of a driven and visionary leader who thrives in challenging environments

Matt has been married for 10 years and has three children. He and his family reside in Wilmington, North Carolina.