

Sharon Silas Bio

Sharon Silas is a Director in the Health Care team for the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO)—a nonpartisan and independent investigative arm of the U.S. Congress. Ms. Silas joined GAO in 2000 and has more than 20 years' experience working on a range of public policy issues at GAO. She currently leads the veterans' and military health care portfolio conducting a variety of reviews on health care delivery at the Veterans Health Administration and Department of Defense. Ms. Silas has led work on veteran and military health care access issues, oversight of medical provider quality, and oversight of veterans health care resource allocation and budget development. Prior to coming to GAO, Ms. Silas held several positions in state government and the non-profit sector. Ms. Silas has an undergraduate degree in Anthropology and a Masters of Public Administration from the University of Washington.