

Thomas O'Toole, MD
Acting Assistant Undersecretary for Health for Clinical Services
Veterans Health Administration

Dr. Thomas O'Toole is the Acting Assistant Undersecretary for Health for Clinical Services and has been the Deputy Assistant Undersecretary for Health in this office since 2021. Prior to joining VACO in 2017, he was the Director of the National Center on Homelessness Among Veterans and the founding director of the Homeless Veterans Patient Aligned Care Team (H-PACT) Program. He began his VA career as the Chief of Primary Care at the Providence VAMC in 2006. He is a general internist based at the Providence VA Medical Center in Rhode Island where he is also a Professor of Medicine and Public Health at Brown University; he had previously been on the faculty at the University of Pittsburgh, Johns Hopkins and Georgetown University. His health services research over the past thirty two years has focused on the needs of vulnerable and underserved populations, medical education, and health systems design.