

Title: Major L. Clark III, Assistant Chief Counsel for Procurement Policy, Office of Advocacy

Bio: Major Clark, Assistant Chief Counsel

Major Clark is responsible for procurement and government contracting issues, including regulations related to the HUBZone, 8(a), Small Business Innovation Research, and Minority Enterprise Development programs. Major has been a member of the SBA Advocacy team since 1998. Before joining Advocacy, he was a senior corporate officer for one of the fastest growing minority-owned businesses in the United States, the Maxima Corporation. During his 11 years at the Maxima Corporation, Major managed several multi-million-dollar federal contracts and was the senior corporate officer for administration. In his earlier tenure in public service, Major received national recognition as the first African American to serve as the chief administrative officer for the Small Business Committee of the U.S. House of Representatives. Congress enacted numerous innovative laws for small and minority businesses during this time, most still at the center of today's federal small business programs.
