

Bio for Wayne McElrath
U.S. Government Accountability Office

- Mr. McElrath is currently a director in GAO's Forensic Audit and Investigative Services Team, where he manages GAO's investigative function and portfolio.
- His work covers administrative, civil, and criminal investigations relative to federally funded programs, to include proactive and reactive program controls testing.
- He attended the University of Missouri where he received a Bachelor's Degree in Criminology and Criminal Justice, and he is also a Harvard Senior Executive Fellow.
- He is a career criminal investigator with more than 20 years of experience conducting investigations within federal agencies. During his career, he has managed investigations relative to a wide variety of local, state, and federal offenses that have resulted in the successful prosecutions of individuals and entities for violations of law.