

Phillip W. Christy

DEPUTY CHIEF ACQUISITION OFFICER AND
DEPUTY EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Phillip Christy is the Deputy Executive Director, Office of Acquisition, Logistics, and Construction (OALC). Mr. Christy serves as an advisor to OALC's Principal Executive Director on acquisition, logistics, and construction issues.

His responsibilities include the day-to-day operational management of OALC's three major organizational elements: the Office of Acquisition and Logistics, the Office of Procurement, Acquisition and Logistics and the Office of Construction and Facilities Management.

Mr. Christy is a retired U.S. Army Medical Service Corps Officer, and he served in multiple senior acquisition, construction, and logistics positions during his 20-year career. Mr. Christy is a native of Renton, Washington. He holds an Executive Juris Doctorate in Health Law from the Concord University of Law, a Master of Science in Health Care Administration from Central Michigan University, and a Bachelor of Arts in Spanish and Business from Washington State University.

Mr. Christy also holds professional status as a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE), Certified Federal Contracts Manager (CFCM), Certified Materials and Resource Professional (CMRP), and as a Project Management Professional (PMP). Additionally, Mr. Christy holds Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act Level III Certifications in Program Management and Contracting.