

BIOGRAPHY OF
GREG NEMBHARD
DEPUTY DIRECTOR FOR CLAIMS SERVICES
THE AMERICAN LEGION
NATIONAL VETERANS AFFAIRS & REHABILITATION DIVISION

Greg Nembhard is the Deputy Director for Claims Services in the National Veteran Affairs & Rehabilitation (VA&R) Division of the Washington DC office. Greg is responsible overseeing the operations of the VA&R Board of Veterans Appeals (BVA) units located in Washington DC and Indianapolis, Indiana. In this position he serves as liaison with Veterans Affairs Central Office, VA BVA and other Federal Agencies and provides the Director with technical information related to the VA Claims and Pension system. Greg also prepares information for legislative mandates and monitors American Legion mandates presented to Congress, investigates and tracks issues important to The American Legion's position regarding Claims and Pension, and conducts and oversees research that assist in the development of legislation and policy on veteran's Claims and Pension.

Greg is a Veteran of both the United State Marine Corps and Army (Reserves) with a combined 15 years of active and reserve service. He served two tours of duty as an active duty Marine, with 2 deployments to Iraq in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF) I and II. His awards and decorations include the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal, Combat Action Ribbon, Sea Service Deployment Ribbon (w/1 Star), Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, National Defense Service Medal, and the Army Reserve Component Achievement Medal.

Greg holds a Master of Business Administration degree, graduating Suma Cum Laude from TUI University and a Bachelor of Science in Healthcare Administration from University of Phoenix. He is a member of the American Legion Post 162 in Lorton Virginia. He resides in Woodbridge, VA with his wife Elizabeth and their two children, Gregory and Greyson.