

Christa A. Shriber

Deputy Chief Counsel, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

Christa A. Shriber serves as the Deputy Chief Counsel for the Benefits Law Group who oversees the Accreditation, Discipline, and Fees program. She has held this position with the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) since 2014. As Deputy Chief Counsel she is responsible for leading a team of twelve attorneys and paralegals in making determinations on initial accreditation applications, monitoring the conduct of VA-accredited individuals, investigating complaints concerning competence and misconduct relating to representation, deciding fee reasonableness matters, and removing accreditation when necessary.

Prior to her appointment to her current position, Ms. Shriber served as a VA Staff Attorney for six years, where she drafted appellate briefs for the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, drafted and reviewed regulatory and legislative documents, and worked extensively on accreditation and attorney fee matters. Before joining VA, Ms. Shriber was an attorney in private practice.

Ms. Shriber graduated, cum laude, from St. Mary's of Maryland College in 2002 and University of Baltimore Law School in 2005.
