

Douglas E. Massey, Esq.

Douglas Massey has served as an attorney advisor at the Board of Veterans' Appeals since 1997. During this period, he demonstrated exceptional proficiency by drafting over 2,000 Board decisions and adjudicating numerous appeals as an Acting Veterans Law Judge. His dedication and expertise were consistently recognized with the highest annual performance ratings each year. In 2016, Mr. Massey was elected President of AFGE Local 17 which represents all bargaining unit employees at the Board of Veterans' Appeals, showcasing his commitment to advocating for employees dedicated to serving our nation's Veterans.

A graduate of Cornell University with a B.S. in 1993 and the University of Maine School of Law with a JD in 1996, Mr. Massey has consistently pursued excellence in his legal career. His commitment to professional development is evident in his recent completion of a course from Wharton Executive Education on Executive Presence and Influence: Persuasive Leadership.

Originally from New England, Doug currently resides in Potomac, MD, with his wife, Nathalie, and their six-year-old son, Liam.