

Daniel T. Shedd is a Legislative Attorney for the American Law Division of the Congressional Research Service (CRS). Dan rejoined CRS in November 2023, where his work focuses on veterans affairs law, administrative law, agricultural law, and export control law.

Prior to returning to Washington, DC, Dan lived in New Orleans from 2016–2023 where he served as Legislative and Policy Advisor in the Chief Administrative Office of the City of New Orleans (2022–2023) and as Deputy City Attorney in the City of New Orleans Law Department (2016–2022). He previously served as a Legislative Attorney in CRS from 2011–2015, covering international trade, veterans affairs law, and administrative law.

Dan earned his J.D. from the George Washington University Law School in 2011. He earned his master of library and information science from Louisiana State University in 2023 and his bachelor's degree from Tulane University in 2006.