

Andrew Tangen is the First Vice President for the National Association of County Veteran Service Officers (NACVSO) and serves as the Superintendent of the Veterans Assistance Commission of Lake County, Illinois, assisting veterans and their dependents in accessing their benefits. Both of his grandfathers and his great-uncles served during WWII and Korea, and his father served in the Air Force during the Vietnam Era. Andrew served in the US Navy, where he deployed eight times in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation Enduring Freedom, and the Global War on Terrorism, including South America, Africa, the Middle East, and Afghanistan, attaining the rank of Lieutenant Commander during his service. He is a graduate of The Citadel, with a Bachelor's degree in International Relations and Military Affairs; Henley-Putnam University, with a Master of Science degree in National Security Studies; Rutgers University, with a Master's in Business Administration; and, University of Illinois at Chicago School of Law with a Juris Doctor, and is a licensed attorney in the State of Illinois. He and his wife, Jane, live in Mundelein, Illinois, with their three children, Andrew, Fiona, and Sylvie.