

Michael (Mike) Stoddard

National Service Director

CSM(Ret) Mike Stoddard was selected to serve as the National Service Director for Wounded Warrior Project on April 9, 2021. Mike leads a national network of Professional Benefits Advocates that ensure we continue to serve and meet the needs of the Warrior, family support member and caregiver across the spectrum of the Department of Defense and the Department of Veterans Affairs. Mike and the WWP Benefits Team are committed to ensure every warrior, family support member, and caregiver receive the benefits they have earned in a manner that honors their service.

Mike Stoddard previously served as the Strategic Advisor to the Under Secretary for Veteran Service Organizations and State Veteran Affairs for the Veterans Benefits Administration. In this position, he worked closely with the Veterans Affairs Office of Inter-Governmental Affairs and the VSO Liaison to the Secretary of Veterans Affairs. He was responsible to maintain the strategic collaborative relationships with VSO and State Veteran Affairs Senior Executives.

Mr. Stoddard served in the U.S. Army for 30 years as a Chief Medical NCO and Combat Medic. He retired as a Command Sergeant Major in May 2019. He had the responsibility for leading and managing large complex organizations and being responsible for the health and welfare of Soldiers, Civilians, Contractors, and Families throughout his military service. He has a proven history of serving as principal advisor to Senior Executives on highly visible, complex, and enduring issues.
