

AMVETS National Commander, Paul Shipley

National Commander Paul Shipley was elected to the organization's highest office by his peers in August 2025 at the AMVETS National Convention in Greensboro, North Carolina. Commander Shipley is a U.S. Army Combat Veteran, having served from 2004 to 2014. He served in Iraq from 2006 to 2007 and was awarded the Combat Action Badge, Army Commendation Medal, and Iraq Campaign Medal. He lives in Uniontown, PA, with his wife and three daughters.