

Aaron "Kyle" Chapman Biography

Kyle Chapman, born and raised in Texas, currently lives in Lubbock, where he is the School of Nursing Veteran Liaison for Texas Tech University Health Science Center. Kyle received his BS from Texas Tech University in Human Development and Family Studies and minored in Addictive Disorders and Recovery Studies. He enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corp as an Infantryman (0311). January-July 2002 he deployed with the 31st Marine Expeditionary Unit (MUE), March-September 2003 deployed with 3rd Battalion 5th Marines as part Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF) - initial invasion, May-October 2004 deployed with 2nd Battalion 4th Marines to Ramadi, Iraq as part of (OIF). He works and serves military and veterans throughout Lubbock (locally), state, nation, and deployed abroad on a daily basis through several outlets; as TTUHSC SON Veteran Liaison, Veterans Engagement Director for Team Red White and Blue (RWB) Lubbock Chapter, Member of Veteran of Foreign Wars (VFW) Lubbock Chapter, Lubbock Veterans Advisory Committee, Mental Health Coalition, and Veteran's Community Education Planning Committee.