

Maria E. Temiquel currently serves as the Director of Grants and Training at the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL). She administers the Jobs for Veterans State Grants, the Homeless Veterans' Reintegration Program, and the National Veterans' Training Institute.

Prior to her current role, she held multiple positions at DOL's Office of Job Corps. Before she began her more than 20 years of Federal service, Ms. Temiquel served as the Program Coordinator of Multicultural Educational Services at Sauk Valley and Rock Valley Community Colleges through Western Illinois University. She started her career as a counselor in a Federal Trio Program at Northern Illinois University.

Beyond her professional career, she demonstrates a deep commitment to volunteerism and community service, involving with esteemed organizations such as the United Service Organization (USO) and the Honor Flight network. She also serves as a Trustee and former Chair of the Sigma Lambda Gamma Education Foundation.