

Biography Larry Smith

Larry Smith is a senior advisor to the President and CEO of Tokyo Electron Limited. He recently retired as Chairman of the Board for Tokyo Electron America, Inc. (TEA) and Tokyo Electron US Holdings (TEH), which has regional revenues over $2 billion annually and over 2500 employees. He joined the company in June 2000 and has more than 35 years of management experience in the semiconductor industry. He is Vice Chair of Texas Governor Abbott's Executive Committee for the Texas Semiconductor Innovation Consortium responsible for allocating grants to companies focused on the semiconductor ecosystem. In December 2025, Larry joined AI Infrastructure Partners advisory board. Mr. Smith also served in the US. Army as an Armor Officer for five years.

Larry has a BS in Engineering from the United States Military Academy, West Point. He also serves his community as Chairman of the Board for Mobile Loaves and Fishes www.mlf.org which has fed over 6.4 Million meals to the Austin homeless population over the last 27 years. He also lived with his wife in the Community First Village for over five and a half years.

