

Xavier Becerra is the 25th Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services and the first Latino to hold the office in the history of the United States. Secretary Becerra served 12 terms in the U.S. House of Representatives and was the first Latino to serve on the Committee on Ways and Means, where he was the Ranking Member of both the Subcommittee on Social Security and the Subcommittee on Health. Most recently, Secretary Becerra served as the Attorney General of the State of California where he cracked down on Medicare and Medicaid fraud, acted to combat the opioid crisis, won an unprecedented $575 million antitrust settlement against one of the largest health systems in California, and led the three-year federal court fight to save the ACA and with it, the protections of the 133 million Americans with preexisting conditions.
