Biography

Born and raised in Tel Aviv, Israel, actress, producer, writer, and activist Noa Tishby got her start in the Israeli entertainment industry as a teen in the original musical David. In recognition of her extensive advocacy work, Noa was appointed as Israel's first-ever Special Envoy for Combatting Antisemitism and the Delegitimization of Israel, a position she held until 2023.

In 2011, Tishby founded the first Israel-focused online advocacy and rapid response organization, Act For Israel, and became a powerful voice for Israel and the Middle East. She was recognized as one of the 50 Most Powerful Jews in the World and was on Hollywood Reporter's Women in Power list of international executives.

After years of speaking and writing about Israel, both publicly and privately, Tishby has deciphered how to explain the complexities of Israel in a clear and relatable way. Her first book Israel: a Simple Guide to the Most Misunderstood Country on Earth, was published in 2021 by Free Press, an imprint of Simon & Schuster. Tishby served in the Israel Defense Forces for two and a half years. She divides her time between Los Angeles and Tel Aviv, and is a proud Jewish momma to her son, Ari.
