Biography

Margaret Marple is a stay-at-home mom with three children, ages 9, 2, and 1, from Forest, VA (Virginia's 5th Congressional District). She was born in Washington, DC and grew up in Southern Maryland. She attended Bryan College in Dayton, TN and received her degree in Psychology. In January 2016, she gave birth to her first child. In 2017, after a very difficult situation and divorce, she became a single mother and worked hard to raise her son until remarrying in 2020.

In May 2022, Margaret and her husband were blessed to have another son and number three in November 2023. She has benefited from the Child Tax Credit both as a single mother and as a married mother. The benefit of the CTC to her and her family has carried a different weight at different times, however it has consistently served to lighten the load of providing for their family's needs and has encouraged them in their work of raising the next generation of Americans. Margaret has over a decade of experience as an Insurance Professional.

Margaret spends much of her time caring for her family and raising her 3 energetic boys to be Godly young men. In her spare time, she serves in the lay counseling ministry at her local church and working on writing projects. Margaret hopes to publish a book one day soon.
