

Mr. Brad Woodhouse
Executive Director, Protect Our Care

Background

Brad Woodhouse is a longtime Democratic strategist, having previously served as President of some of the nation's leading progressive groups including Correct the Record, American Bridge 21st Century, and Americans United for Change. Mr. Woodhouse took on these roles after a five-year (2008 to 2013) run as a senior strategist for the Obama campaign and Communications Director for the Democratic National Committee.

Mr. Woodhouse now serves as Executive Director of Protect Our Care, a social welfare nonprofit with a mission to address health care affordability and equity.

Education

Mr. Woodhouse earned his bachelor's degree in political science and government from the University of South Carolina.