

Shawn Longoria

Shawn Longoria is the Program Director for the Community Healthcore Parents as Teachers program in the East Texas area, where she leads a team of 12 home visitors and 2 supervisors. With more than 25 years of experience in the social services field supporting children and families, she has been with Parents as Teachers since 2012.

Over the past 14 years, Shawn has successfully developed and sustained high-quality Parents as Teachers programs across four sites in East Texas, which have achieved and maintained Blue Ribbon status through the National Parents as Teachers accreditation process. Her experience also includes serving as a home visitor, supervisor, and Parents as Teachers regional trainer. Shawn holds a bachelor's degree in sociology from East Texas Baptist University in Marshall, Texas and completed coursework in Early Childhood Education through LeTourneau University in Longview, Texas.