

Tonya Eickman

Program Audit Division Director, Social Security Administration, Office of the Inspector General

Mrs. Eickman currently serves as a Program Audit Division Director within the Office of the Inspector General's (OIG) Office of Audit for the Social Security Administration. Since March 2019, she has provided divisional leadership to professional performance audit staff as they plan, execute, and report on audits to identify and prevent fraud, waste, and abuse in SSA's programs, systems, and operations.

Mrs. Eickman joined the OIG in 2003 as an auditor and has held roles as senior auditor and audit manager. She served as a fellow in the 2022-2023 cohort of the Council of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency Fellowship Program.

Mrs. Eickman graduated from Northwest Missouri State University in Maryville, Missouri with a BA in accounting and an MBA. She is also a certified public accountant and a certified government financial manager.
