

Ann Dugas [Dew-Goss]
Retired Louisiana State Employee

Ann grew up in Opelousas, Louisiana, and is the second child in a family of six children. Ann currently resides in Brusly, Louisiana, in West Baton Rouge Parish where she has resided for more than forty years. Ann has three grown daughters, nine grandchildren, and she is soon to be a great grandmother. She began her work career soon after graduating from high school with South Central Bell Telephone Company in Lafayette, Louisiana, as a telephone operator. Her employment has included working several years at Dow Chemical Company in Plaquemine, Louisiana, and many years of service with the office of the Louisiana Attorney General's Office.

Ann belongs to several civic clubs in West Baton Rouge Parish, a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and a past member of the Baton Rouge Paralegal Association.

During her retirement Ann hopes to spend more time with her family and friends.
