

Marcie Strouse [strowz]
Small Business Owner, Capitol Benefits

Ms. Strouse brings 20 years of experience as an independent agent in the benefits industry primarily serving other small business owners. Ms. Strouse is passionate about promoting personal health care choices that deliver the highest quality for employers and their employees. She can speak to the benefits of flexible coverage options such as Individual Coverage Health Reimbursement Arrangements (ICHRA), Health Savings Accounts (HSAs), and health and wellness plan design that she sees with her small business customers. In 2018, Iowa Governor Kim Reynolds appointed Ms. Strouse to the Medical Assistance Advisory Council (MAAC) for the State of Iowa where she was just re-appointed to serve another two-year term. She has also worked closely with the Muscular Dystrophy Association since her twins were diagnosed with a neuromuscular disease at just seven years old.
