

Colin Edgerton, MD
Director, Articularis Healthcare

Dr. Edgerton is a founding member and director of Articularis Healthcare, the largest rheumatology practice in the United States. Dr. Edgerton completed his rheumatology fellowship at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in 2006. Dr. Edgerton joined private practice in 2013 after a 12-year career as a U.S. Army physician, where he attained the rank of Lieutenant Colonel and received a Bronze Star for valor during his 2008 deployment to Iraq. Dr. Edgerton can speak to the difficulties of prescribing biosimilars – especially for Humira – in Medicare Part D and opportunities to improve Medicare Part D adoption of biosimilars.
