

Debra Patt, MD, PhD, MBA, FACS
President, Community Oncology Alliance

Dr. Patt is a highly respected oncologist and breast cancer specialist based in Austin, TX, where she serves as the President of the Community Oncology Alliance. Dr. Patt is a leader in the field of healthcare informatics, working to integrate technology and data to improve patient outcomes and treatment approaches. Dr. Patt can speak to the challenges of prescribing biosimilars in the Medicare Parts B & D markets and lessons learned from pioneering a practice with a 90% biosimilar utilization rate.