

Gianni Caldwell, Founder, Caldwell Strategic Consulting (Washington, DC)

Gianni Caldwell is a Fox News political analyst and Founder of Caldwell Strategic Consulting, a Washington, D.C. based bi-partisan firm. Gianni is an experienced speaker sharing his story of how conservative values helped a kid from the South Side of Chicago find a life of opportunity. Gianni published a book in 2019 titled, “Taken for Granted: How Conservatism Can Win Back the Americans that Liberalism failed.” Born to a mother addicted to drugs and raised in poverty by his grandmother on the South Side of Chicago, Gianni saw firsthand how liberal policies have failed African American voters on issues like poverty, welfare, and education. As someone who beat the odds growing up under a fear-based mentality that limits what people can achieve, Caldwell believes there’s another way. Last year, Gianni testified at a Judiciary Committee hearing on the topic of crime and gun violence in Chicago. His testimony focused on the 2021 murder of his brother in Chicago and criminal justice policy.
