

Kimberely Webb
Youth in Extended Foster Care
Farmington, Missouri

Kimberely Webb is a 20-year-old living in Farmington, Missouri, and is currently in foster care. Kimberely has experienced foster care at ages 6, 12, and 16. She currently lives in a Transitional Living Scattered Site (TLSS) program and is actively working to transition out of care. She aspires to become a homeowner and hopes to one day become a foster parent to older teenagers. She currently works nighttime shifts as a correctional officer at the Farmington Correctional Center and participates in Missouri's Regional Older Youth Advancement of Life Skills (ROYALS) Unit. Her hobbies include reading, and she recently developed an interest in gardening. Kimberely is a constituent of Chairman Smith.
