

Dan Williams
Founder, Origin Payments
Greenville, OH

Dan Williams is a financial industry leader and Founder of Origin Payments. Mr. Williams has over 25 years of financial services experience including creating a new embedded banking division at Key Bank, leading payments product development for Cincinnati, a Ohio-based Fifth Third Bank, and managing technology and customer solution design at First Data Government Solutions, a division focused on automation and secure money movement for Federal and State agencies. Mr. Williams has a master's degree in business from Xavier University and a Bachelor of Arts and Science from the University of Dayton.