

Roy Houseman

Legislative Director, United Steelworkers

Biography

Roy Houseman is the Legislative Director for United Steelworkers (USW), which is the largest manufacturing union in North America representing workers in a broad array of industries from Steel, paper, rubber, glass, refining, healthcare, and many others. Mr. Houseman has an oversight role over the USW legislative priorities and has a policy focus on trade and retirement security. Prior to his work at the USW, Mr. Houseman was a local union president and City Council member in Missoula, Montana where he worked at a paper mill as an operator. After the mill's closure in 2010, Mr. Houseman completed a Masters of Public Administration degree from the University of Montana with the Trade Adjustment Assistance program which has aided him in his current career.