

Af Nasser

Vice President, Sourcing, COE, & Supplier Diversity
Cintas

Af joined Cintas in 2019 as Director of Sourcing for Facility Service and in 2021 was promoted to Senior Director of Global Sourcing, and in 2022 he was promoted to Vice President of Strategic Sourcing, COE, and Supplier Diversity.

Prior to joining Cintas, Nasser served in various roles at Belden Inc. including Vice President for Global Procurement where he was responsible for relationships with suppliers and identifying new and alternative sourcing options.

Throughout his career, Af has an established history of executing strategic plans to help organizations achieve their key performance metrics. He implemented sourcing technologies that delivered significant cost reductions across both direct and indirect categories, enhanced business continuity, improved payment terms, and boosted quality performance.

Af also increased diversified supplier spend, implemented process improvements to drive productivity. During the global pandemic, Af's decisive leadership and ability to navigate a complex supply chain helped Cintas secure crucial products in the face of industry-wide shortages.

Af holds a Bachelor of Finance degree from The College of New Jersey and an MBA from Centenary College. In his free time, he enjoys traveling, learning about different cultures, spending time outdoors, and listening to music.

Af lives in Mason, Ohio, with his wife Danielle and two sons Henry and Silas.
