

Chairman Kevin Brady
Senior Consultant, Akin

Biography

Former U.S. Rep. Kevin Brady (R-TX) currently advises clients on a range of public policy and government relations issues, with a special focus on economic issues: tax, trade, health care and energy matters. He served for 26 years as a Member of Congress representing the 8th congressional district of Texas, including northern Houston, as well as The Woodlands.

Throughout his career, Rep. Brady played a pivotal role in shaping economic policy in the United States. As Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee (2015-2019), he led the Committee's efforts to deliver a detailed blueprint for comprehensive, pro-growth tax reform, the first in 30 years, and authored the historic 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA).

Rep. Brady served as Chairman of the Joint Committee on Taxation and Chairman of the Joint Economic Committee of Congress and has earned a reputation as a highly regarded leader within the Republican caucus in both the House and Senate. His extensive experience has allowed him to cultivate strong relationships with policymakers and staff members in both parties. A dedicated advocate for pro-growth policies, tax reform and free trade, Rep. Brady is committed to shaping a favorable business environment for his clients.

Prior to serving in Congress, Rep. Brady worked as a Chamber of Commerce executive for 18 years and served for six years in the Texas House of Representatives.