

Clark Saunders
Adoptive Parent of Two and Public School Teacher

Clark Saunders and his wife Brianna (bree-ANN-uh) are parents to two children and live in Katy, Texas. They felt the call to adopt, and finalized the adoption of their first child in 2024 and their second child in January 2026. Adoption was an expensive process, and, in combination with community support from their church, the Adoption Tax Credit made the option financially feasible. Clark is a public school teacher, and Brianna leads childhood ministries at their church.
