

Lynnette Lee-Villanueva, Vice President and National Director of AARP Foundation Tax-Aide and Property Tax-Aide

Lynnette Lee-Villanueva is the Vice President and National Director for AARP Foundation Tax-Aide and Property Tax-Aide; in recent years she has served as a Tax-Aide Volunteer Counselor. Lynnette's work has been devoted to working with volunteers; she has spent her career with AARP – 11 of them with Tax-Aide – working to improve the lives of older Americans.

Earlier in her AARP career, she opened the New Jersey State office, where she worked for 13 years engaging AARP members in grassroots volunteer organizing, to ensure that the voice of the most vulnerable were heard on key legislative initiatives.

She received her B.S. from California Baptist University in Riverside, California.
