

Gary Rauschenberger,
District Coordinator for
AARP Foundation Tax-Aide,
Butler County

Gary Rauschenberger is the District Coordinator for AARP Foundation Tax-Aide in Butler County, Pennsylvania. Serving for over 16 years in the AARP Foundation Tax-Aide program as a counselor, local coordinator, instructor, district coordinator and as the Partnership & Communication Specialist on the state management team, he was also named as a Tax-Aide Fellow Recipient in 2019.

He currently also volunteers as a Medicare counselor for the Pennsylvania Department of Aging's APPRISE program, and as Treasurer for the Butler County Community College Education Foundation.

Prior to retiring as the Vice President of Tax & Compliance for First National Trust Company, he graduated from Pennsylvania State University, the American Bankers Association's Stonier Graduate School of Banking, and its National Graduate Compliance School.