

Pete Sepp

President, National Taxpayers Union

Biography

As President, Pete Sepp leads the non-profit, non-partisan National Taxpayers Union's (NTU's) government affairs, public relations, and development activities. Pete also oversees strategic planning for NTU and its staff and supervises the research and educational operations of the National Taxpayers Union Foundation (NTUF).

Since beginning his service with NTU in 1988, Pete has written and edited numerous policy papers, informational publications, and activist manuals, as well as studies on topics such as Congressional perquisites, citizen-initiated tax revolts, antitrust and competition regulation, and Pentagon spending. He has testified before Congress on matters ranging from Government-Sponsored Enterprises in lending to Medicare and federal pension reforms, from underground infrastructure to small business taxpayer concerns. He has lectured in the U.S. and abroad on issues such as tax administration reform and has lobbied on numerous legislative matters including the IRS Restructuring and Reform Act and successor proposals, the Balanced Budget Constitutional Amendment, and the Whistleblower Protection Enhancement Act.

Educational Background

Mr. Sepp graduated from Webster University in St. Louis with a degree in History and Political Science.
