20 OPERATIONS OF THE DE-
21 PARTMENT OF STATE

22 SEC. 101. SENSE OF CONGRESS ON IMPORTANCE OF DE-
23 PARTMENT OF STATE’S WORK.

24 It is the sense of Congress that—

1           (1) United States global engagement is key to 2           a stable and prosperous world;

3           (2) United States leadership is indispensable in 4           light of the many complex and interconnected
5           threats facing the United States and the world;

6           (3) diplomacy and development are critical tools
7           of national power, and full deployment of these tools
8           is vital to United States national security;

9           (4) challenges such as the global refugee and 10          migration crises, terrorism, historic famine and food
11          insecurity, and fragile or repressive societies cannot 12          be addressed without sustained and robust United 13          States diplomatic and development leadership;

14          (5) the United States Government must use all 15          of the instruments of national security and foreign 16          policy at its disposal to protect United States citi-
17          zens, promote United States interests and values,
18          and support global stability and prosperity;

19          (6) United States security and prosperity de-20          pend on having partners and allies that share our in-21          terests and values, and these partnerships are nur-
22          tured and our shared interests and values are pro-
23          moted through United States diplomatic engage-24          ment, security cooperation, economic statecraft, and 25          assistance that helps further economic development,

1 good governance, including the rule of law and 2 democratic institutions, and the development of 3 shared responses to natural and humanitarian disas-
4 ters;

5 (7) as the United States Government agencies
6 primarily charged with conducting diplomacy and 7 development, the Department and the United States
8 Agency for International Development (USAID) re-
9 quire sustained and robust funding to carry out this 10 important work, which is essential to our ability to 11 project United States leadership and values and to 12 advance the United States interests around the 13 world;

14 (8) the work of the Department and USAID
15 makes the United States and the world safer and 16 more prosperous by alleviating global poverty and 17 hunger, fighting HIV/AIDS and other infectious dis-
18 eases, strengthening alliances, expanding educational 19 opportunities for women and girls, promoting good
20 governance and democracy, supporting anti-corrup-
21 tion efforts, driving economic development and 22 trade, preventing armed conflicts and humanitarian
23 crises, and creating American jobs and export oppor-
24 tunities;

1           (9) the Department and USAID are vital na-
2           tional security agencies, whose work is critical to the 3           projection of United States power and leadership 4           worldwide, and without which Americans would be 5           less safe, our economic power would be diminished,
6           and global stability and prosperity would suffer;

7           (10) investing in diplomacy and development
8           before conflicts break out saves American lives while 9           also being cost-effective; and 10          (11) the contributions of personnel working at 11          the Department and USAID are extraordinarily val-

12          uable and allow the United States to maintain its 13          leadership around the world.
