A BILL

To require the Securities and Exchange Commission to carry out a study of the costs associated with small- and medium-sized companies to undertake initial public offerings.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Middle Market IPO
5 Cost Act”.

1 SEC. 2. STUDY ON IPO FEES.

2 (a) STUDY.—The Comptroller General of the United
3 States, in consultation with the Securities and Exchange
4 Commission, in consultation with the Financial Industry
5 Regulatory Authority, shall carry out a study of the costs
6 associated with small- and medium-sized companies to un-
7 dertake initial public offerings (“IPOs”). In carrying out
8 such study, the Comptroller General shall—

9 (1) consider the direct and indirect costs of an 10 IPO, including—

11 (A) fees of accountants, underwriters, and 12 any other outside advisors with respect to the 13 IPO;

14 (B) compliance with Federal and State se-
15 curities laws at the time of the IPO; and

16 (C) such other IPO-related costs as the 17 Comptroller General may consider;

18 (2) compare and analyze the costs of an IPO
19 with the costs of obtaining alternative sources of fi-
20 nancing and of liquidity;

21 (3) consider the impact of such costs on capital
22 formation;

23 (4) analyze the impact of these costs on the 24 availability of public securities of small- and me-
25 dium-sized companies to retail investors; and

1           (5) analyze trends in IPOs over a time period
2           the Commission determines is appropriate to analyze
3           IPO pricing practices, considering—

4                   (A) the number of IPOs;

5                   (B) how costs for IPOs have evolved over
6           time for underwriters, investment advisory
7           firms, and other professions for services in con-
8           nection with an IPO;

9                   (C) the number of brokers and dealers ac-
10          tive in underwriting IPOs;

11                  (D) the different types of services that un-
12          derwriters and related persons provide before
13          and after a small- or medium-sized company
14          IPO and the factors impacting IPOs costs;

15                  (E) changes in the costs and availability of 16          investment research for small- and medium-
17          sized companies; and

18                  (F) the impacts of litigation and its costs
19          on being a public company.

20          (b) REPORT.—Not later than the end of the 360-day
21          period beginning on the date of the enactment of this Act,
22          the Comptroller General shall issue a report to the Con-
23          gress containing all findings and determinations made in 24          carrying out the study required under subsection (a) and

- 1 any administrative or legislative recommendations the
- 2 Comptroller General may have.
