

Merah Winters
Belton, TX

Merah Winters is a member of Bell County 4-H in Texas. She was a delegate for Texas at the 2013-2014 National Congress and a lobbyist at the 2014-2015 Texas 4-H Congress.

Within Texas, she has participated in many livestock programs including Texas Junior Livestock Association, Junior American Boer Goat Association, American Rabbit Breeding Association, and Bell County Ambassadors.

Her passion for livestock has led her to become a junior director of the goat division in the Texas Junior Livestock Association; showmanship mentor with Texas A&M's Lamb and Goat Camp, District 8 goat showmanship coach; an applied livestock ambassador; and an active speaker for livestock in her county, district, and state. Her educational presentation entitled "Color in the Ring" received 1st place at the state level. Merah aspires to be an agricultural communications major and a veterinarian for marine exotics.
