

Kent bio 10/11/21

Kent Stenderup is a 3rd generation farmer in Arvin, CA; southern San Joaquin Valley. The family farm consists of trees, vines and row crops on acreage owned by family members. Kent has been a managing partner since graduation from college.

Kent holds a Bachelor's degree in Economics from Stanford University and a MBA from California State University Bakersfield.

Kent Stenderup is the immediate past Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Almond Board of California and is a member of the Strategic Ag Innovation Committee. Mr. Stenderup also serves on the Board of Directors of Blue Diamond Growers, Delano Growers Grape Products (grape juice concentrate) and has served as a Board member of the California Tomato Research Institute (CTRI), California Potato Research Advisory Board (CPRAB) and the California Certified Organic Farmers (CCOF) Kern Chapter Board.