The Committee requests that the Library work with Federal agencies (such as the Institute for Museum and Library Services and the National Endowment for the Humanities), to strengthen relationships with museums, non-profits, and ethnic heritage centers across the country that collect stories, documents, and materials from families and institutions dedicated to the experience of Eastern and Central European emigres over the past 75 years. The Committee directs the Librarian to undertake a feasibility study and report to the Committees no later than 180 days after enactment on the potential of assembling a centralized collection of stories, documents, and materials from families and institutions dedicated to Eastern and Central European collections. The study shall include any potential activities and outreach required, financial costs and shall include a summary of any storage, display, or potential legal issues associated with the creation of such a collection.”
