

Maxine Feinberg, DDS President

Dr. Maxine Feinberg, a Cranford, New Jersey periodontist, was installed as President of the American Dental Association.

Dr. Feinberg had served as Fourth District Trustee to the ADA Board of Trustees and was the first woman to serve as President of the New Jersey Dental Association. She served as a delegate in both the ADA and New Jersey Dental Association House of Delegates. Dr. Feinberg was appointed to the New Jersey State Board of Dentistry where she served for 10 years, one term as President.

Dr. Feinberg has served as the Board of Trustee Liaison to the Council on Access, Prevention and Interprofessional Relations, Commission on Dental Accreditation, Council on Dental Benefit Programs. She chaired the ADA Task Force on Student Debt.

She initiated the New Jersey Give Kids A Smile campaign for 2002 and 2003 and was chair of the ADA Council on Members Insurance and Retirement Plans in 2007 and 2008. She was a recipient of NJDA's Distinguished Service Award and Give Kids A Smile Pioneer Award.

Dr. Feinberg is a fellow in the American College of Dentists, the International College of Dentists and the Pierre Fauchard Academy.

A graduate of New York University and the New York University College of Dentistry, Dr. Feinberg has maintained a private periodontal practice for the last 27 years in Union County, New Jersey. She resides in Westfield, New Jersey with her husband, John, and has two daughters, Haley 25 and Rebecca 20.