

Joseph L. James, the Yurok Tribal Chairman is from the village of Sregon. Chairman James has worked for Tribal Governments for the last 22 years in the areas of fisheries, water policy and law, infrastructure, protection of cultural resources, economic development and leadership. He has served as the Yurok Tribe's Transportation Manager, Councilmember and most recently elected as the Chairman in October 2018.